

DESIGN EXHIBITION

POETRY IN DAILY OBJECTS

First soloshow by the Belgian designer of the year in Grand-Hornu.

Jean-François D'Or graduated at ENSAV La Cambre in Brussels in 1998. He made his debut with the brand Light where he worked closely together with designers such as Maarten van Severen and Hans de Pelsmacker. In 2003, he set up his own industrial design office: Loudordesign studio.

His approach takes account of companies demands as well as users needs and is characterised by its accurateness. Exploring numerous materials, Jean-François D'Or brings out their beauty without ostentation. His simple, unpretentious, logical objects appeal as much for their clearly perceptible design as their discrete poetry.

Distributed by Cinna, Domani, Interni Edition, Jongform, Ligne Roset, Reflect+, Toss B, Vervloet and others, he has found his way to international success.

The exhibition "Moodboards" aims primarily to highlight his inspiration and universe characterised by mental rigor and poetry.

A catalogue will be jointly edited by Stichting Kunstboek and Grand-Hornu Images for this occasion.
